Mr. COWDEN received as wharfman last week $69.

The back-water in Chickamauga was covered with ice Monday morning, the first of the season.

L. M. BEMAN of Centerville, O., is paying 6 cents per lb. for heavy hogs, dressed.

Treasurer GUY requests us to state that he will receive taxes until the 31st, without penalty.

Sheriff Ripley has been quite unwell during the past week. We wish him an early recovery.

Our public schools adjourned on Monday for a holiday vacation of two weeks. The attendance up to the present time has been large.

Quite a number of our citizens leave to day for Cincinnati to hear Nilsson sing. We may expect them to sing her praises upon their return.

Among those on 'Change at Cincinnati last week, we notice the name of Mr. R. S. Wilcox, of Vinton, Ohio.

We are in receipt of Peters' Musical Monthly for January, containing several fine pieces of music. We are not saddest when we sing.

Rev. GIBBONS, formerly of this county, has been holding an interesting meeting at Millersport, Lawrence county.

Mr. HENRY SIMMERMAN who was recently shot at Arabia, Lawrence county, is recovering. The shot is out on bail.

A band of Gypsies are camping in Walnut township. They tell fortunes, trade horses, and probably play "hokey."

The West Va. Agriculturalist, edited by Mr. T. M. PALMER, formerly of this county, is printed and bound at Ironton.

Mr. L. M. BEMAN of Centerville purchased a hog, raised by LESLIE HULBERT, which weighed 500 pounds net.

Auditor EVANS issued forty-seven county orders last week, totaling a total of $1,128 15. Of this $340 was school money; $339 bridge money, and $100 for insurance on the Court house. The major part of the remainder was used in paying taxes.

For the benefit of those interested in the Morgan Raid Claims we will say that Congress will probably not act upon them until February. Until then nothing can be done toward their collection.

The execution in the case of the State of Ohio vs. RACHET PARR, published by us last week, has been restored to the files in the Clerk's office at the Court-house. Those desiring to see it can call there. Go and see.

The new city directory shows that Gallipolis is happy with one hundred and thirty widows. Most of them being marriageable, well might Weller beware.

The colored folks of the Third and Fourth Wards have several festive at their churches up town this and next week. They invite all to attend.

Rev. G. W. JAMISON, who has been seriously ill during the past two weeks, was out on the street on Saturday, and is rapidly on the mend.

Far deligate, J. W. McDONALD, voted against the allowance of a per diem during the holiday adjournment of the Constitutional Convention.

Our new city directory has put in an appearance. It is got up in good style, but the typography is miserable. The names of several "strangers"—if we may judge from the spelling—appear therein.

During the recent high river large quantities of drift wood passed down. The river reached its highest point on Wednesday.

Treasurer GUY and assistant took in upward of two thousand dollars taxes, on Saturday. Who says money is scarce?

We published last week the death of Mr. JAS. W. WOMELDOFF, which was a mistake. It was Mrs. A. E. WOMELDOFF, the estimable wife of this gentleman, who died. She was a sister of H. J. BRADSHAW, Esq., of this county.

Cutting Scrape in Walnut Township.

Quite a serious cutting scrape took place in Walnut township, on last Sunday evening, in which the principal actors were RUBE FAIRLEY, JOHN COLLINS, JR., NANCY COLLINS, LEVI COLEMAN, and his brother JOHN COLEMAN, all living in the township, except FAIRLEY, who lives at Mt. Vernon Furnace, Lawrence county. The trouble started from an old difficulty between FAIRLEY and the COLLINS boys, when the latter were "playing tag" on the grounds of the above, for a job on last summer FAIRLEY stoned the COLLINS while they were chopping, and went off and told that he stoned and chased them from the job. This came to the ears of the COLLINS, and they consequently were rather anxious to interview RUBE.

On last Sunday RUBE came to Walnut township, when one of the COLLINS saw him; told him that he lied when he said he chased them out of the job—but admitted that he stoned them—and proposed to fight it out, thus settling the matter. FAIRLEY declined, and they parted. In the evening all were at church at Mt. Zion, and all noted the same road, FAIRLEY hearing NANCY company. They had proceeded about one-half a mile, when they got to talking it over, finally quarrelling, when FAIRLEY struck JOHN COLEMAN in the mouth with a rock, knocking out three front teeth, and splitting his lip. FAIRLEY then rushed in and eluded FAIRLEY; they fell together, and FAIRLEY shortly after followed that his gun was out. While this was going on JOHN COLEMAN was engaged with JOHN COLLINS and NANCY COLLINS. As soon as LEVI cried that he was out, FAIRLEY and the COLLINS ran off. Upon examination it was found that LEVI had been cut in nine places by FAIRLEY. His forehead was cut across, his right cheek split from the eye downward, the muscles of his left arm laid open, and his abdomen cut across, from which his entrails protruded. JOHN COLEMAN received a long gash in the neck, close to the jugular vein, besides three cuts on different parts of his body. Drs. PATTERSON and BELCHER were called, who dressed the wounds. JOHN may recover, but LEVI's case is pronounced hopeless.

ALEX. McDANIEL, J. P., issued a warrant for the arrest of all the parties, but the constable could only arrest JOHN and NANCY COLLINS, FAIRLEY having left for parts unknown. Upon arraignment before E. McDANIEL, the preliminary examination was postponed until the 9th prox., JOHN and NANCY giving bond in the sum of $500 for their appearance at that time. JOHN COLLINS, Sr., their father, going security. As a whole, it is one of the most serious cutting scrapes it has ever been our duty to record.

The following are the heaviest tax-paying firms in our city, realty and personally included, together with the amount of tax paid by each this year:

Honking, Allemon & Co., $1,835 37
Halliday, Miles & Co., 1,741 44
Waddell, Blazer & Co., 579 84
LeClercq Bros., 420 27
Blickle & Uffman, 383 09
Eaton, Hill & Co., 329 96
Goswold, Fuller & Co., 308 54
Kling, Shober & Co., 258 67
E. Smith & Co., 201 00
J. M. Kerr & Co., 187 69
Vanden & Hutchinson, 172 16
Wm. C. Miller & Son, 152 70
J. & P. A. Sanna, 134 08
J. J. Cadot & Bro., 121 40
Mauck & Brandyberry, 110 65
Millineux, Lawson & Co., 100 18
T. S. & H. N. Ford, 100 18

Several of our merchants are invoicing their goods, to find out on which side the gain or loss during the past year is.

Monday was court day in 'Squire DABMON's Court. Two colored men were at law, in order to adjust their claims against each other. Six men, on a jury, were not in the best of humor at having to sit there all day for fifty cents each. Judgment for plaintiff for $12. Appeal threatened.

The colored M. E. Church on 31 street, will commence a Festival on next Monday evening. They cordially invite all to attend.

The "Christian at Work" is informed that its Chromos are subject to orders, upon payment of charges. Our columns are too valuable for the terms offered.

The colored brass band of this city will entertain Christmas day with a street concert.

The firm of NORTH, CAMPBELL & Co. (the Gallia Furnace Company) own six thousand, one hundred and twelve acres of land, and pay taxes on it this year—with their personality—to the amount of $754 18.

Mr. WILLIAM KINDER, of Clay township, returned from his New Orleans trip last Wednesday. He and Mr. HIRAN WATSON, of Ohio township, took down a fat bat-load of apples, and we are sorry to learn that it proved a bad investment. The boat contained 2198 barrels, and the weather during the trip was so warm that the apples heated and rotted, and when opened on arrival at New Orleans were found to be utterly worthless. The loss was over $5,000.

The potato boats, also, found a poor market, the supply being largely in excess of the demand. They were selling at from $2 50 to $2 65 per barrel. The wharf was crowded with fat-hoats, some 80 and over, and all loaded.

A son of Mr. A. T. LARLEY, of our city, aged about eight years, fell off the stern of the lower wharf boat, on Sunday afternoon, and made a miraculous escape from drowning. There was a coal barge about six feet below the wharf boat, and the swift current swept the little fellow directly to it, when a young man who happened providentially to be on the barge at the time, reached down and dragged him from his cool bath. This should prove a warning to all boys of that age to keep away from the river.

THE MASONIC INSTALLATION, on Saturday evening, is expected to be a grand affair. Gen. RIFANDEK will deliver an address, and install the Chapter officers. The Gallipolis Amateur Orchestra will be present to dispense fine music, and a splendid supper will be spread.

The steamboats Emma Graham, Kydd and Chesapeake, running opposition in the Huntington and Parkersburg trade, have reduced the fare from this place to Parkersburg to a mere nominal sum. Should the war continue a premium will probably be paid to each passenger.

On SUNDAY—Two boys, SMALLWOOD and SWITELBAUGH, of tender years, say one score each, got into a difficulty up town on Sunday. SWITELBAUGH, it appears, was in a skiff rowing past, when he called the other some pet names alluding to his maturity. SMALLWOOD gathered some convenient geological specimens and cast them in the neighborhood of SWITELBAUGH's head, and when he had rowed his boat ashore gave him a star cussing SWITELBAUGH, on Monday morning, called at the Mayor's office and "affiliated" him. His Honor sat on his woolsack, and for carrying on this lapidation and using unclassical language, fined him two dollars and costs.

The furniture factory will cease work this week, and remain idle for two weeks or more, to afford opportunity for repairs, taking account of stock, &c. This is one of the live establishments of this city, affording work to a large number of hands, and all like to hear the clatter of its machinery.

Mr. JOSTAR McCALL, of Harrison township, lost his barn by fire Sunday night week. The fire was discovered about 2 o'clock, and it had gained such headway that nothing was saved. It and its contents, consisting of hay, oats, grass seed, gears, &c., were totally destroyed. Loss about $1,200, covered by $500 insurance on building, and $200 on contents. Supposed to be set on fire.

We are indebted to the editor, T. M. PALMER, Esq., for a copy of the December number of "The West Virginia Agriculturalist." It is an interesting magazine of 32 pages, and is mailed to subscribers at the low price of one dollar per year. Business office, Buffalo, Putnam Co., W. Va.

The M. E. Festival, Tuesday evening, was a very pleasant affair, and was well attended. Receipts, we judge, large.

The county road, where the railroad track crosses it, is reported to be in a very bad condition. Complaints are general and continued.

Last Night's Council. Four members present. Bills to the amount of $320.40 were presented and allowed.

The Committee appointed to compromise with E. & J. BERRY reported nothing accomplished and were discharged. The Committee on Finance were instructed to pay the judgment of $100 to E. & J. BERRY and the costs of the city.

President LANGLEY, under date Dec. 17th, issues an address "to the stockholders of the G. M. & C. R. R. Co." The main part of it relates to difficulties experienced in collecting stock subscriptions in Vinton county. This we omit for prudential reasons. The following is of interest:

We have completed an agreement with the Vinton Coal and Iron Company and their lessees, Messrs. Bancroft & Son, for seventy thousand dollars, including two and one third miles of finished Railroad, now in use, between the Vinton Furnace and Vinton Station, the amount to be expended on the line of our road south of the Vinton Furnace.

He closes by saying—"the prospects for our road were never better."

St. Peter's Church, Rev. D. W. Cox, Rector. Services on Christmas, at 10 o'clock A. M.

The Working men of this city enjoy themselves in a dance at Henking's Hall this (Wednesday) evening.

Special Notices.

CUT THIS OUT.

It May Save Your Life.

There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Lung Disease, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. Dr. A. BOSCHKE'S German Syrup has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures astonishes every one that tries it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to your Druggist L. P. MAGUIET, Jos. Drouillard & Co., J. C. Rathburn, Gallipolis, Ohio, and get a sample bottle free of charge, or a regular size for 75 cents.
